“ Mommy,
I love you so much and miss you. This is way too soon for anyone to lose you. You died young. You struggled with depression most your life... I hope you're better now. I hope it at peace. I'll never forget you and neither will dad... we always talk about you and the memories we have made with you. Dad wants you to know he loves you so so much. My life changes on July 22nd.
