“ I want the Minor family to know that you are all in our prayers. Sandy, Bethany, Jordan and I love you all so much as you were a powerful part of our lives as friends, fellow servants and those we knew who would be there for us. Gary and I had a lot - a lot - a ton of visits together. We loved to eat together, and drink coffee together. We enjoyed our conversations about the Kingdom of God and how we could serve Him better. Gary loved to serve. Gary would accomplish anything I asked him to do. From my beginning days at Mechanicsburg to the time I had to leave, we were "Buddy's". I know Gary will missed by anyone who has known him and Mechanicsburg will truly miss all the work he did for the Kingdom. You will be missed my Brother! I will see you again on That Day!
