

Jerry W. Wardrip Sr.

May 20, 1940 - May 6, 2020

Jerry Wade Wardrip, Sr., 79, of Delphi, Indiana, passed on Wednesday, May 6, 2020. He was born in Kosmosdale, Kentucky on May 24, 1940, a son of the late James A. and Frances T. (Jameson) Wardrip.

He attended schools in Indianapolis and served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy.

Jerry was a longtime Indianapolis resident before recently moving to Delphi to be closer to his daughter.

He was a machinist for Precision Machine Company in Indianapolis and a member of the Moose Lodge in Beech Grove.

Jerry loved listening to music and was a great bass guitar player. In addition to music, he enjoyed working on computers and being with friends and family. He was a kind soul and will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Survivors include:

Daughter:

Judy Alford and fiancé, Steve of Delphi, Indiana

Son:

Jerry Wade Wardrip, Jr. of Indianapolis

Several Grandchildren

Many Nieces and Nephews

In addition to his parents, Jerry was preceded in death by three sisters and two brothers.

Entombment of ashes with military rites will be held on Saturday, May 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. at Lincoln Memory Gardens in Whitestown, Indiana.

Myers Mortuary and Boone County Crematory have been entrusted with his care.

Memorials in Jerry's memory may be directed to the Dementia Society of America, PO Box 600, Doylestown, PA 18901.

Cemetery

Lincoln Memory Gardens

6851 South Indianapolis Road

Whitestown, IN, 46075

Comments

“ i helped take care of jerry at eskenazi hospital last year and was thinking about him —searched his name and saw he passed this week. i could tell he had a wonderful soul and send my condolences to his family/friends.

joe - May 08 at 08:35 PM

“ I will always remember Saturday nights out watching Wayne and Jerry on stage playing music. We all had so much fun, so many memories. Love you Jerry, May you be at peace!

Susie Roosa - May 07 at 07:29 PM