March 13, 1957 - October 30, 2018

John David Allen, 61, formerly of Lebanon, Indiana, passed away peacefully on October 30, 2018 in Orlando, Florida, after suffering declining health for the past several months.

He was born on March 13, 1957 to the late Wilbur E. "Wib" Allen and Betty (Turner) Allen Emmert. John was raised in Lebanon and graduated from Lebanon High School in 1975. He earned a bachelor's degree from Indiana University. In his younger days, John enjoyed water skiing, scuba diving, and riding his motorcycle.

John lived in Orlando for the last 30 years. He worked for a car rental agency at the Orlando Airport and the last several years he was an over the road truck driver.

In addition to his parents, John was preceded in death by both sets of grandparents.

John is survived by his brother, Doug Allen and sister-in-law, Dee, and their children and grandchildren, as well as many cousins.

Brian Keller and Larry Liebman, both of Florida, were good friends to John; visiting and calling during his last difficult months. We are grateful for their friendship and attention.

“ My most sincere condolences to John's family. We were classmates & friends starting in Middle School. I have many fond memories of times spent together during HS & beyond. As the years passed we were only able to visit every few years or so, but John was always ready to enjoy times together. He was a good friend & will be missed. He was quite a character, & always smiling & laughing. I will miss my friend. Blessings to him on his journey.

“ To Doug & Family ~
John & I (and my wife Stephanie Brown Sexton) were classmates at Lebanon and much like the unintentional distance between us after high school, we are unable to attend the Memorial Service due to a prior engagement the weekend of December 1st.
Even after all these years, its remarkable the magnetic pull of a childhood friend. Sadly, I must extend my condolences in writing rather than in person, but I am reflecting on the good memories.
May John rest in peace,

Mike Sexton
