“ It has been a pleasure working with Kent for the last eight years. I will miss him and the coworker he was. He was always a hard worker and he taught me a lot of things. My thought and prayers go out to his family and friends.

“ Kent although I did not know him personally growing up all those years ago in Windsor Village, it was getting to meet up as we all did at the WVK reunion in July 2013. We had many of us benefitted from his intelligent debate on current issues, past years of the old neighborhood trivia and his great sense of humor. So pleased to learn that he knew the Lord Jesus as his personal Savior and that he is free to go on evermore. We both talked of our appreciation of Dan Fogelberg music and now has the answers fulfilled to all of his questions. For his remaining wife and family as well as his friends he leaves behind may God bring that peace and comfort than only He can bring. Rest In Peace Kent

“ Have many fond memories growing up with our family weekends and summers at Grandma Stombaugh's house in Goodland. He was always known to us as Butch back then. He was born on my 3rd birthday so we both shared the same birth date as well as middle names. My one regret is that although we lived so close to each other, we rarely saw each other, although we did keep in touch on social media. Will miss you Butch.

“ I remember his Mom, Helen, calling him "Butch" when we were kids. Thanks for the reminder!!

“ I still find it very hard to believe that this has happened. I have known Kent for over 50 years, since we were young boys. I have so many memories of him, playing army together, pretending that we were secret agents, riding bikes, and growing up with him and his family. As we grew older our friendship matured as well with both of us being each other's go to person in many ways Kent led me to receive Christ and the infilling of the Holy Spirit which was the most pivotal point in my life. I have no doubt where he is right now but I sure wish he could have stuck around a lot longer, as I'm sure everyone else that knew him feel as well.

Now, like the rest of us I have only memories but all good ones and many of them being very funny ones. My heart and prayers go out to his family I pray that Almighty God pours out his tender mercies and loving kindnesses on them and all of his friends and acquaintances.

Rest in heavenly peace my good friend until we meet again.
