

Mary (Daisy) S. Apple

June 17, 1942 - June 15, 2020

Mary Stephanie (Warwick) Apple, 77, passed away on Tuesday, June 16, 2020, at Signature Healthcare of Parkwood in Lebanon, Indiana of COVID-19. She was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on June 17, 1942 and was a graduate of Shortridge High School. Mary was the daughter of the late Chester and Mary (Manchester) Warwick.

Known as Daisy to her family and friends, she was a passionate devotee of Elvis and loved to go out for pizza and root beer. As a lifelong Hoosier, she lived in Indianapolis, Richmond, Brazil and Lebanon where she made her home for the last nearly 30 years. Daisy was a fixture in Lebanon and enjoyed long walks in the city, making friends as she went.

She was a faithful member of the Lebanon Rock Church for many years and considered it part of her family. To Daisy the service was not complete without singing Amazing Grace and The Old Rugged Cross.

A loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, she is survived by her sons Gerald (Wendy) Apple, William (Ruth) Apple, and Andrew Apple, and brother Michael (Glenna) Warwick. Daisy was grandmother to 15 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren. She was beloved by many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her two brothers, Chester and William Warwick, one grandson, Christopher Apple, as well as her parents.

Private Family Graveside Services were held on Friday, June 19, 2020 at Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis, Indiana, where she is interred near her parents.

Myers Mortuary in Lebanon has been entrusted with her arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Lebanon Rock Church

Comments

---

“ Windy Pricher lit a candle in memory of Mary (Daisy) S. Apple

windy pricher - June 20, 2020 at 04:14 PM