“ Heartfelt condolences to the family. I was fortunate to meet Dick in the fall of '71 when I pledged our fraternity, SAE. We were friends throughout college and had many good times together. We rented a house together during college on Riverside along with another fraternity brother, David Gilliland. He will be missed by many.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Dick's passing. Dick and I attended Ball State University together and he was my Sigma Alpha Epsilon (SAE) fraternity brother. I have so many great memories of the evenings and weekends we shared with Dick. He had many, many, friends and was fondly known as "Butkus" for his love for football. Rest In Peace, Dick.

“ I, too, remember Dick. He was one of the senior active SAE brothers that us young pledges looked up to. So sad to hear of him passing but he'll always be in our memories.

“ Sorry to the family for your loss and of course to his brother John. When we younger we called Richard "Dickey". Us older guys would let Dickey join in an activity once in a while. So sorry for your loss Goody.

“ Sherry and family, there just aren't any words that are adequate. You are in my prayers. When I think of Richard I can't think of a time when he wasn't warm, kind and always welcoming. I remember how protective he was of you Sherry and you could genuinely feel the love he had for you and your family. I wish I had some magic words to make everything better. Sherry, I genuinely want you to know I'm here if ever you need an ear, a friend or a shoulder. Richard will always be with you, I know it's not the same but you will be together again.

“ I am so sorry for this sudden loss. Rich was such a gentle soul. Always smiling and ready to help if asked. He loved his wife Sherry so unconditionally, it was obvious to all who were around them, that she was cherished. To Nick and Nicky, when you weren't around he did a lot of bragging. Through all the ups and downs, his love and pride was always present. To John Goodwin, I always loved listening to your brotherly banter on Thanksgiving, still not sure who was the smarter or wiser one; but for today I am going to say it was Richard. He was so intelligent. The last 30 something years sharing holidays with he and his family will be missed. He will be missed. Rest in peace Richard, we will take care of Sherry. we love you. Go Bears! Love, Beth

“ I was a classmate of Dick's and have some great memories. Everything from playing football together to other typical high school antics at that point in time. My sincere condolences to his family and close friends.

“ The many years we lived next door as children. We played cowboys and Indians and baseball and played in the sandbox and swung on the tree in the old tractor tire. We all had such fun! Wonderful memories - Prayers for all the family.
