

Alice Jo Criss

June 12, 1928 - November 25, 2017

Alice Jo Criss, 89, of Lebanon passed away on Saturday, November 25, 2017, at her daughter's home in Frankfort. She was born on June 12, 1928 in Shelburn, Indiana, a daughter of the late Newman and Nora Ellen (Carroll) Guy.

Raised in Sullivan County, Indiana, Alice graduated from Shelburn High School in 1946.

On October 16, 1948 she was married to Alvie Lloyd "Bud" Criss in Sullivan, Indiana. He passed away on February 19, 1991.

Following their marriage, Alice and Bud moved to Terre Haute and then to Indianapolis. During the mid-1950s, they moved to Boone County and had resided there since. Alice was a dedicated homemaker and for a period of time worked as a clerk at Eli Lilly and Fort Harrison in Indianapolis. She was an active auxiliary member of the Eagles Club, VFW and Moose, all of Lebanon and a former member of the Bethesda Baptist Church in Brownsburg.

Alice was extremely devoted to her family and involved with her children's activities including Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and making sure 4-H projects were completed. The family enjoyed many camping trips together. Alice loved to read and crochet. She had a passion for caring for children and was a foster parent for many years and when her grandchildren came along, she was head over heels. During retirement, Alice was fortunate to enjoy many trips with her husband and then many train trips after his passing.

“ I remember my Aunt Alice visiting us in Detroit. She was in High School. While taking care of me she made Fudge....It was my introduction to the best thing I'd ever eaten. She and Bud were a wonderful couple. God speed lovely lady
