“ I have fond memories of Angie, who was an exceptional waitress at Judy's Cafe, a business owned by my parents. I always enjoyed our encounters at IGA, where our conversations would often extend until another customer required assistance. She possessed a remarkable personality, characterized by her coolness and humor. I was delighted to learn of her return to Lebanon and her success in securing a fulfilling position. Therefore, I am deeply saddened by this news. My sincere condolences go out to her entire family; you are in my thoughts.

“ You were always so cool and funny at IGA. You called my kid Sam the Weather Man forever because we scooted in one night before a big storm and he was telling you all about it (he was obsessed with storms) he wanted you all to be safe. So he was "Sam the Weather Man" thanks for being so kind to him!!
