“ To the family and friends of Anna Mae I post this with mixed emotions; sad at the passing of such a loving and vital woman, yet comforted in the knowledge of her reunion with Cleo and Rod and many, many more. Greater still, her meeting our Saviour Jesus Christ, face to face.

Anna Mae (and Cleo) had a tremendous influence on my life, 'amazing' in fact! About a year ago I started research for a book that I determined then would be dedicated in the honor of Anna Mae, and my Mamaw.

I am so very sorry that I cannot make it to her memorial today. I will be pausing from time to time for reflection, praise, and thanksgiving.

Larry, Kathy, Nikki, Andy, Amy, you have my deepest and most sincere condolences. Prayers for you all. God bless you and keep you.

“ Anna Mae, Cleo and family are such a warm wonderful memory of part of my childhood at Otterbein church. Growing up there with no family nearby, I considered them family for such a time. I moved away and have not kept up with them. However, my life was shaped with their loving earnest faith. It might not have looked like I was listening and watching but I was! Matt. 25:21a is what I envision Anna Mae being received into heaven. ‘The master was full of praise. Well done my good and faithful servant.....’ we were so blessed to have known her.

“ Kathy, Larry & families, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Anna Mae. She was the sweetest, most kind person I ever met. I lived next door to her and her husband for 20 years. They were both very special people. She was so active and friendly. She will be missed by many I'm sure. Sending prayers for strength and peace to all. Kay (Dunn) McIntire.
