

Antonio Morales-Colon

July 15, 1972 - October 13, 2022

On October 13, 2022, Antonio “Tony” Morales-Colon, husband, father of two, son, and brother, passed away at the age of 50.

He was born July 15, 1972, to Antonio and Georgina, in Bayamon, Puerto Rico.

Tony loved anything Billiards, spending time with friends and family. He always said he has a gypsy soul, so it was fitting he became an over the road truck driver. In his spare time, he enjoyed fixing pool tables, crocheting, cooking, and playing pool. He never met a stranger and had a wonderful sense of humor. He has been a teacher, friend, father figure, and mentor to a wide multitude of friends who loved him as much as he loved them.

He is preceded in death by his father Antonio “Nito” Morales-Vasquez.

Tony is survived by his beautiful mother, Georgina Colon-Mateo of Puerto Rico; wife, Dawn Mancill; son, Troy (Shantel) Morales of NC; daughter, Naysha Morales of VA; the mother of his children Lillian Andujar of VA; brothers, Javier (Ruth) Morales of VA and Armando (Waleska) Morales of PR; grandchildren, Gianna Morales, Mathew Wilburn, and Chloe Wilburn; nephew, Luis Morales; niece, Gineyshka Morales; brother from another mother, Frank (Krista) Glauner; as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins and a ton of bonus family that came with his wife.

Per Antonio's wishes there will be no services. He had wished to be cremated, sent home to Puerto Rico and for his family and friends to celebrate remembering him as he was.

“ All i have are the few memories...like being in jc pennys and him saying he liked the song playing it was iris by the goo goo dolls, or how he could make roses out of napkins, smoking together in our shed, him making me jail style nachos i spent so much time being angry with him i shouldve forgiven him sooner so i could have pictures and videos, or maybe even a voicemail to listen to but i have nothing but all the letters and cards he sent from jail and the memories in my head don't waste time being angry there's just not enough time.....

It's still so sad to know he passed. I have very very fond memories of him. He loved deeply and he showed that love on a daily. He Spent a lot of time with my family especially my nephew and I spen many days and nights on the truck with him, so many memories come to mind especially when the Radio plays the song "Colder Weather" that was our song and to this day it's still hard to listen to that song. He had the most beautiful smile I have ever seen. I hope you are free and resting easy in Paradise❤️
