“ Avie had the brightest smile & a big happy laugh. For her life was an adventure to be enjoyed. I have boxes of pictures and she & Jack are in lots of them. She was a special person. I'm sorry for your loss.

“ I was little visting Uncle Jack & Aunt Avies house. I remember her making me scrambled eggs in the "microwave". I was like - yuk - but then realized they weren't too bad.

Then one year she was visiting my family in Arizona and actually "broke" out garbage disposal ! but who could ever get mad at her, we all just laughed and we still do when my Mom (her niece Linda) tells the story. We will treasure those memories and always smile when we think about Aunt Avie. Love you to pieces. Now she's with Uncle Jack laughing together. XOXO

“ I remember when I first met Avie and Jack. I answered the front door excited that someone knocked on it. I was probably four. She was the most beautiful lady I had ever seen and Jack was Clark Gable looking. It was love at first sight. Avie became a special friend to me. A role model - that special aunt that knew you better than you knew yourself. She is the heart of gold, pure heart, and blessing to all whoever met her.

“ I met Avie while I was working at Homewood and she became one of my favorite residents. We shared many happy times together. I'm grateful to Avie for insisting that I join the Wednesday evening bible study at Homewood with her as that became my favorite time with her. I miss her but know we'll be together again in Heaven. May your memories of Avie be a comfort to you as they are for me.
