“ So sorry to hear about Aunt Francie. She was such a sweet lady. I really felt like we got to know each other better after dad got sick. Her voice reminded me of grandma. I am sure she is with all her family in heaven. And I know Grandma is happy to have all her children together once again. So sorry to you all. Lisa( Donald's daughter).

Thank you for the comment it was so sudden and I was up in IN to be there when she left . She just went to sleep and didn't wake up . God rewarded her with painless death for all the work she had here on earth . She always impressed on me that I could do anything I wanted . I am self employed in FL . She was my rock missing here shocked really. love Matt Atwood
