“ Bertie was my best friend growing up, we had the best memories together he always had attention to details and played a big part in my life, he was fun and caring. I will always remember him as he was in this life. God will welcome him with open arms. Happy journey's my cousin till we meet again. Say hi to your dad and mom and everyone else we have been missing. They will be there to greet you.

Many great memories in my teens all involve you. We had so much fun riding around, blasting music and laughing at you being silly. You loved to make people laugh. Fly high until we meet again.
