“ Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers. Betty was a little Duracell bunny, I would see her everywhere all the time. Her smile, kind spirit and love of life were always inspiring. I will miss her at the Beehive this year when we go to lunch there, she has worked that for years. I got to know her better when Carolyn worked at the bank, she was a blessing to so many. God Bless you all, Heaven gained a good angel in Betty, she will get people hopping up there with her energetic nature!!

“ Oh I am sad reading this. I enjoyed working with Betty in the Beehive during the 4H fair. She enjoyed attending all of the Homemakers events. The Merri Mixers loved having Betty and her fellow Lebanonites at our annual salad supper. I am glad that I had the opportunity to visit with her last November at the Holuday Bazaar. Betty's smile and gentle handshake will be missed by many.
