“ Betty was truly an amazing woman. I saw her just last summer helping at check-in at the 4-H fair, a legend in her time. I met her first at my bridal shower in 1971 before I married my husband, Tom. Always smiling, always energetic, she popped in and out of my life through my mother-in-law, Anna Louise Miller who was her good friend and bridge player. Even though, I haven't seen her much lately, I will always remember her as "one of the girls". Janet Miller
