

Bonita K. Ramsey

June 18, 1955 - May 1, 2023

This obituary has been lovingly submitted by Bonita's family.

Bonita Kaye (Angle) Ramsey, age 67, passed away May 1, 2023, in Lebanon, Indiana. She was born June 18, 1955, in Indianapolis, Indiana.

She is survived by her significant other, Russell Skeels; daughters, Shannon Zimmerman (Marcus) and Keri Worland (Donnie); three grandsons, two granddaughters, and one great grandson; brothers, Richard Angle (Lois), Don Angle (Betty), and Victor Angle; sister, Joy St. Martin (David); and countless friends. Bonita was preceded in death by her father, Melvin Angle and her mother, Polly Towner.

Bonita grew up in Speedway, Indiana, graduating from Speedway High School in 1973. She lived in Tarpon Springs, Florida for many years having recently returned to Indiana. Bonita had worked for Golden Rule Insurance Company as a Supervisor of Mail Services in Indianapolis and for New and Nearly New Restaurant Equipment for 18 years in Tarpon Springs, Florida.

She enjoyed living life to the fullest and would do anything for her family and friends. She enjoyed cooking, baking, reading, shopping, creating jewelry, listening to country music, camping, bowling, concerts and much more. She is fondly remembered by friends and family for her love of adventure, many laughing until you are crying moments, and loving her family fiercely.

Until we meet again, we will all miss Bonita and her wonderful infectious laugh. May she rest in peace.

A party will be held in her honor at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Boone County Cancer Society, 117 West Elm Street, Lebanon, Indiana 46052 or to a Veterans' fund of your choice.

“ She was my cousin so we shared many great memories. One was Bonita, her daughter and me playing games and having so much fun we ended in that laughing until you cry moments! Others were time spent at our grandparents. Really missing her!!
