

Brad Dooley

June 6, 1951 - December 5, 2022

Mr. James Bradford “Brad” Dooley, 71, of Lebanon, Indiana, passed away on Monday, December 5, 2022, at Ascension St. Vincent Hospital in Indianapolis. He was born June 6, 1951, in Logansport, Indiana, a son of Helen (Howard) Roberts and the late Kenneth Dooley.

Brad was married to Edie (Smith) Dooley and together they had two daughters. He later was married to Gail Dooley.

Brad was a graduate of Ben Davis High School and had attended Edison College. Following school, he lived in Florida for many years where he worked laying tile for inground pools. He owned a company, DECO TRIM, that designed and manufactured swimming pool patio parts.

He was a member of Charisma Chapel in Naples, Florida. He enjoyed fishing, sailing, and playing the guitar. Above all, he loved and treasured his family and friends.

Survivors include his mother and stepfather, Helen and Russell Roberts of Lebanon, Indiana; two daughters, Sarah Dooley of Naples, Florida and Susan (Juan) Muniz of Naples, Florida; three grandchildren, Ethan, Hannah, and Audrey Muniz of Naples, Florida; two sisters, Jill (Jim) Hackett of Carmel, Indiana and Joan (Jim) Coddington of Lehigh, Florida; stepbrother, Rob

(Janet) Roberts of Mechanicsville, Virginia; stepsister, Margaret A. Hacker of Costa Mesa, California; niece, Jessica (Shone) Phillips and nephew, Adam (Stacey) Tanselle.

Funeral Services are planned for 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 14, 2022, at Grace Church, 3001 Elm Swamp Road, in Lebanon, Indiana, with Bill Brannon, officiating. Visitation will be held at the church from 9:00 a.m. until the time of services. Myers Mortuary and Boone County Crematory have been entrusted with his care.

Memorials may be directed in Brad's memory to Boone County Senior Services, 515 CrownPointe Drive, Lebanon, Indiana 46052.
