“ :) long ago memories of Andrea and Brian.
High school loves, the good, the bad and then one of the happiest couples and family. As many have posted, the passing of Brian is very surreal, unexplained, untimely and sad.
Andrea, we wish you the best of days to come in your loss of your soul mate, the love of your life. ..
Thinking of you always, with our sympathies,

“ My dearest Andi,

It always did my heart good to look at your pictures and see your family activity online. Your kids have all grown so quickly and you and Brian did a wonderful job as parents to them. They are really good kids. I so enjoyed having a way of keeping up with you and your family. I don't get out much anymore but when I did and I would run into you or Joni I enjoyed visiting with you so much. I know you and Joni have been through so much. I would take the pain away if I could.

I just today, heard of the loss of your best friend and my heart feels broken for you. Seeing you and Brian together with your family always made me smile. I know you two adored each other. I really wish there was something that I could do or say to make it better, but we both know that only time will heal. I've never understood why things like this happen but we must trust that God has plans for your beloved and you will be together again one day. Trust and faith are the big things right now. God is always there for you. He will never leave you to face your heartache alone.

If you feel there is anything at all that I can do to help you or take some of the pain away... please, please call me and I will do my best with whatever I can. You and your sister have always been in my heart. I think you know that. We still talk about the little girl that just had to have another drink of water or be tucked in one more time and Uncle Non just couldn't resist. That was just the other day wasn't it????

I love you little girl. I'm but a phone call away.

“ Oh Brian Dean, where do I begin? You were the first grandchild born in our family and spoiled and loved by all of us. You were your Papaw's boy and you loved your time on the farm with him. Your Mamaw felt the same and loved you dearly. We spent many times together, going to the zoo, playing in the country and even dropped a few lines with you. You loved the lake like all of us and ended our days with Bon fires and some great laughter. Thinking back on how you grew from a baby, toddler, teenager, young man and then a husband and dad. You have always been a special nephew and could always bring laughter to a crowd or party. You loved your cousins and brought a special laughter out of Matthew and our special Kyle, you were so good to him. My heart is aching on losing you and I am praying for strength for all, especially Andrea and your children, which you loved so much. You are now with your Papaw, Mamaw and Jess again, along with others who we miss. I will light a candle in your memory and continue to keep you in my heart. You will be missed so much here on earth. With love always, my nephew. - Aunt Peg

“ What a sad day for the Brandt family and all of the Lebanon community. May God extend his favor on you through the days of grieving and as God continues to display His care and comfort for Andrea and the kids. Plz know that the Faust family loves and misses you and your family extended. You all remain in our prayers and near to our hearts. Brian lived his life to the fullest and I appreciate his friendship as a brother in Christ.
