“ So sorry to hear of Carl's passing, it breaks my heart. I worked with Carl for several years and he was family to me, always called him Papaw Carl. I will miss visiting with him and hearing his laughter, he was always making me laugh. It was a pleasure to know Carl so well and to have so many years of friendship. He will be missed dearly by several. I imagine him already working on cars and trucks up there in Heaven. Love you Papaw Carl and Marie

“ I remember all of the gatherings that was the Harris Family out in the country. They was great times when everyone that had an instrument would start playing out under the pine tree beside the house. Then you and Marie would start singing and we all would stop what we was doing just to listen to the song be sung. It felt good to listen to the songs and the music. Those was good times for everyone. You will be missed and loved, but now you are with the Lord. All of us send our love with you on this journey that you have taken. You are already being missed by the ones that you have left behind. R.I.P. Carl T. Harris.

“ I am one of those "several nieces". My mother was Carl's sister, Margaret. Like Darlene, I have such fond memories of when all the family would get together. Loved hearing him play and sing. Praying for Marie and all his family.

“ As a child I remember everyone gathering at grandma & grandpa Harris house and all the Harris brothers would play guitar with the exception of my father. Andrew. For some reason he didn't have the talent but we all sure loved the music under the big tree by the pond or wherever the visit might have been. Later family reunions were the best get together times when Carl & Marie sang together. I know God blessed us with Carl & it's hard to say bye "for now". Love & prayers of strength to my family from Texas.
