“ Carl was one of my many cousins in the Small family - his mom was my dad's sister. We grew up sharing the family get togethers and loved visiting them when they lived on the farm. I just saw him last fall at another cousin's home (Jerry Isenhower) for a reunion and he had grown into such a caring, loving and joyful man. He was so proud of his family and his light shown brightly. Condolences to his wife and family. 🤔

“ Carl was a one-man hospitality team at Colfax Christian Church. He was always intent on making everyone feel welcome and making sure new faces were met and made to feel at home. This sweet man will be so missed by all of us, but we can be at peace because we know he is home with God and I am sure the Father said, "Well done good and faithful servant!" when Carl joined him in Heaven! Love to Janet and the family.
