“ Brenda, Sharon and family, I was sorry to hear of your loss. I have memories of Carol from grade school and our mothers trading school books through the years for us girls. I was confused for several years why we weren't cousins when we were both cousins to Theresa Jean. Last saw Carol at Uncle Ross' funeral. You're all in my prayers. Sally (Thrine) Morgan

“ I had been over a few times talking with Carol. I don't think she ever got over Larry's death. She was a good friend. We could talk for hours sometimes. I had no idea she was this bad. I talked with Craig and he said she was going to the doctor the next day because she couldn't walk. We never know when it's the last time we'll see someone. I'm so sorry Craig and Chad. I love you boys. If you need anything don't hesitate to ask, for real. I'll keep you in my prayers.
