“ Bronte was my dear friend and wonderful sister in Christ. I loved her very much and she will be muchly missed.

I remember all the good times we had in Tuscaloosa and Northport, Alabama. We all moved to Alabama about the same time in 2012. Bela and I moved from The Way International and the Terry and Bronte moved from Tennessee.

We would later be in their fellowship. One of most memorable times were when Bronte and Terry did the live DTA class. Wow, they were a dynamic duo preaching and teaching the Word. It will always live in my mind and heart.

Bronte loved to sing and she sang "Turn your eyes upon Jesus", and boy did she sing it well. She brought tears of joy to all of us in our fellowship while she sang this song.

Bronte loved to give and her life proved it. She gave me a beautiful green shower carrying bag. I use this bag every day. What a thoughtful gift.

She loved magnolia's and she had them on her dishes in the kitchen. She painted one that hung in her house. She was a talented painter. She really knew her English grammar very well. We loved to witness together and we went to many different places. We visited museums and had wine, cheese, and crackers together at one of the showings. Bronte loved to take pictures and she was very good at photography. We read the Bible publicly at a downtown church in Tuscaloosa while sitting on stools. We went to Mexican Restaurants and witnessed to the wait staff. We read the same books from the library and we discussed them.

Bronte and I rode to the Advanced Class together and we really shared our hearts with each other. She told me about her trip abroad to Europe with her choir, a trip to Mexico seeing Mexicans living in cardboard houses, how she was witnessed to by her brother, and many other things. she took me to one of her favorite stores, the Container Store. These memories I will always keep and look back upon with fondness in my memory of her.

During her last days, I went to visit her and I sang to her her favorite songs. I know she loved music. Bronte will always be remembered because she loved God, His Word, the Household, and her family.

She dearly loved her father and was always talking about him. I am thankful to have known Bronte because she brought joy into my life by her love and friendship. She has made my life better because of her wonderful love that she shared with me. I am blessed to have known this wonderful virtuous woman of God. I am thankful for the hope of Christ's return.
