

Chad Miller

March 23, 1969 - December 18, 2020

Chad Bradey Miller of Lebanon passed away on December 18, 2020 at the age of 51. He was born March 23, 1969 in Lebanon, Indiana, the son of Sharon Kay (Fuller) Stradling and the late, James Harold Miller.

He was a 1988 graduate of Lebanon High School, where he played football and wrestled.

Chad spent several years during high school and for a short while afterwards as a carpenter, a trade at which he was very talented. After receiving several certifications, he began employment at Westfield Utilities for three years before transferring to Zionsville Wastewater treatment facility where he spent 16 years. His carpentry skills were of notable contribution during facility upgrades for Lebanon First Church of the Nazarene ensuring preventative structural maintenance was conducted in a timely manner.

His favorite community event was spent after work in the humid summer heat and the frigid drizzle of an Indiana autumn and spanned 10 years while coaching and mentoring young athletes for Boone County Youth Football League. Chad was best known for his passionate drive, giving spirit and attention to detail. He was always very particular with his belongings and shoes were always to be left at the door. He was firm but fair with his children, always driving home the lesson of great moral character. Doing what you say and saying what you mean was especially important to Chad and he wanted his children to exemplify that trait.

Chad enjoyed spending time outside with his children fishing, hunting, camping or fixing up the house or cabin. He is survived by his wife of 16 years Michelle; children Nick Weaver, Christian Knight, Gage and Raquella Miller; his mother Sharon Stradling; sisters, Ali (Dr. Jon) Robinson, Delaina Clark, and little brother Richard Stradling.

In addition to his father, Chad was preceded in death by a half-sister, Tracey Jo Jones.

“ Rest easy brother, until we meet again

“ We were camping away from home. I was walking on the pier and I see a man dive into the water(clothes and all). As I got closer, I told my husband that I thought I knew the guy. My husband said “honey, we are hours and hundreds of miles away from home, there’s no way you know that guy. A few minutes later Chad pops up out of the water with a smile and says “hey Jenny!!!!” He was fishing and lost his bait bucket so he jumped in and dove until he found it. He then moved to the end of my road where I would drive home and see him out working around his house or playing with his children in the yard.

Great guy who was taken far too soon. Fly high, Chad.

Praying for Michelle and family.

“ My friend, my brother. The memories will last forever. I first met Chad in BCYFL, he loved football and was a beast of a player, from pads to weekend full contact on the practice field with all willing. To taking Sharon's Camero for spins around Hoosier Estates, to going city limit hunting on the railroad tracks by Triangle Asphalt, to enjoying the Friday night tradition of his wonderful mother Sharon bringing home Noble Roman's, to going to Tanselle's to charge up a great steak. So much of my upbringing was shaped by Chad. From working hay and straw all day to get a little money we would spend on Pizza King, to Kmart, to Iddings Construction he was a great person and I learned much from Chad. There was never a dull moment spent with Doc. There are not enough words to say how much love we all have for you. I will miss you.

“ I never saw Chad when he did not have a smile on his face and open arms for a hug. As a nurse, my mother, cared for Chad as young boy and always loved him and his big personality.

I will always remember you and your infectious laughter, you are loved and will be forever missed. I cant be there in person but I will be thinking of you, your family and friends. Rest in Peace my friend..

Chad never changed from when he was a young child to age 51, always a ready smile. We use to laugh on which one of us was the most stubborn, he would say I was because I was a woman and his mothers friend. When I think of Chad I think of a good man, honest and caring. He will be missed by many.
