

Rev Charles L. Brinson

September 27, 1936 - September 2, 2019

Rev. Charles Leland Brinson, 82, passed away on September 2, 2019 at Homewood Health Campus in Lebanon. He was born on September 27, 1936 in Avoca, Indiana, the son of the late Herbert and Vivian (Hall) Brinson.

He graduated from Williams High School in 1954. His father wanted him to become a veterinary, but God had other plans.

Charles married Ruth (Sheetz) Brinson on September 1, 1956 in Avoca, Indiana. Ruth survives and they recently shared 63 loving years together.

He began ministry in 1952, and ordained in 1961 in Lafayette, Indiana. He served for 50 years for a number of churches ranging from New Maysville to Thorntown. He retired after serving his last thirty-one years at Trinity Chapel in Thorntown, Indiana.

Charles was a friend and mentor to young ministers beginning their career. He served on many boards during his ministry and is now an honorary board member of the Indiana District.

In retirement, he enjoyed golfing. Charles was a generous and compassionate man who was dedicated to ministry and devoted to family and friends.

“Hello dear family. We are sending our love and blessings as you celebrate the life of your dear Charles Brinson. We established a great relationship with Pastor Brinson many years ago when we came into the Indiana PCG family. He was one of the first Pastors to welcome our Evangelistic Ministry into Trinity Chapel. Will love and miss him too. Our love to everyone. Evangelists Marcus and Lorretta Kelley
