

Charles L. Stultz

March 18, 2013

Age: 98 Widowed City of Residence: South Bend, Indiana and formerly of Whitestown, Indiana Date of Death: Monday, March 18, 2013 Place of Death: At SBN Hospice House in South Bend, Indiana Charles L. Stultz was born, one of eight children, in Terre Haute, Indiana on September 8, 1914, a son of the late James Everett and Mary Ellen (Deihl) Stultz. In rural Terre Haute, he began farming at an early age with his father after school. He was married on March 9, 1935, to Beulah Maxine (Archer) Stultz in Terre Haute, Indiana. They were married for seventy years before Mrs. Stultz passed away on June 9, 2005. In 1941, he and his family moved to New Augusta, Indiana where he continued farming. He later moved to Whitestown, Indiana. He was employed by Electrical Steel at Speedway and for thirty-three years at Rock Island Refinery until his retirement in 1977. After retirement, Charles continued to farm part-time. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He loved his family and they came first, but he really enjoyed going on his fishing trips. His other hobby was gardening; he had raised a garden for over 70 years.
