“ *From Sharon Ahnfield Sparks from Dallas, Texas:
"For my precious Charlotte of 75 years, my lifelong dearest friend. We met when we were just 5 years old and have shared a beautiful close and loving friendship all these 75 years. There will never be anyone in my heart like my Charlotte. My condolences, sympathy and much love to your entire family with special love to my Goddaughter, Franky. I will miss you and love you every day of my life, my dearest friend."*

“ I met Charlotte at the Lebanon memorial park at an outdoor concert and she invited me to sit w her. We didn't say anything because the concert just had started and it was hot that day around 3 or so years ago. I said good bye to her thinking she was the most beautiful lady I had ever seen. Her son Gunnar and I worked at the Boys and Girls Club since 2013 and at Romans game he said “ you need to meet my mom. The first thing she said to me was “ you have beautiful eyes.” I knew that her health was failing and I didn't get to see her. I sent her an 80 th birthday card but she treated me like family one of her kids. She was the sweetest most caring person and her family has treated me like family. That is a huge blessing since most of my family is gone. Thank you for loving me like one of your own. You will greatly be missed.

“Charlotte--You have opened your heart and your home to so many people going through all kinds of difficult times over the years...Always there for anyone who needed help and yet you were no pushover! You lovingly told people when they were the one being wrong--when they needed to straighten up their act--and that though you would be there to help them get things straightened out--you also expected certain rules to be followed while being in your home--while giving them a job, etc. I have no doubt that even though many years have passed since I last saw you that you are still the same--caring, always interested in hearing how people are doing--Charlotte that you always were!! I cannot begin to imagine the huge whole that will be left in the hearts of your family and of so many people who were have been given the privilege of your motherly love, counsel, and friendship. I remember when our family first moved to Lebanon--I think it was in 7th or 8th grade that we had a school project and it was for us to pick a Special Lady, write about her, and to bring her to a little tea--No one who knows you would be surprised that even back then I chose you! At one time in my life you opened your home to me and during another horrible time you even had a baby shower for my firstborn who will be turning 30 years old here in a couple months. Thank you so much for being so much MORE than most people who pass through this life looking out only for their own interests!! I always smile when I think of you and you have made me a better person and I only hope that I, at the end of my life, can have become half the wonderful caring woman you have been to so many!

My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I will always have a special love for you in my heart.

Love,
Lianne Iacoli (Mitchell)
