“ Dallas is my cousin. As kids, our families did lots of things together in Indiana. His family moved to AZ. My family followed a year later. I hung out with my brothers, Dallas and Gary. I remember one time going to a drive in movie and a couple of us hid in the trunk to get in free. In later years, Dallas and his friend added a room, bathroom and closet to my home. Dallas was always a pleasant, kind and giving person. I always saw him when I visited IN. He came to see me when he was in AZ. I would talk to him on the phone occasionally. I love him and miss him. Until we meet again in Heaven. Love, your cousin, Judy

“ I remember being a teenager and leaving class and walking to Dallas's house because he lived next door to the high school. He would tell me he was going to kick my butt if I didn't go back to class.

“ I remember being pregnant with my son and I rode with Dallas to help him take his work truck to people who needed. I was toward the end of my pregnancy and he would laugh at me because I had troubles climbing up in the truck.
