

Danny R. Blubaugh

January 20, 1938 - March 14, 2020

Danny R. Blubaugh, 82, passed away on Saturday, March 14, 2020 at his home in Lebanon, Indiana. He was born in Mechanicsburg, Indiana, on January 20, 1938; a son of the late Floyd R. Blubaugh and Marjorie (Whitaker) Leffingwell.

He was a 1956 graduate of Jackson High School in Clinton County. On August 25, 1956 he was married to Wilma (Barrett) Blubaugh; she survives, and they shared 63 loving years together.

In 1959, Danny was a manager in the parts department for Lake Central Air which later became U.S. Airlines, retiring in 1994 after 34 years of dedicated service.

He was an active member of the "Coffee Club" at Sigler's Restaurant, who enjoyed afternoons with good friends. Danny was a great basketball player in his younger days and loved watching basketball games and tournaments. He was a hard worker who enjoyed tinkering in his garage while listening to the radio and took great pride in his family and their activities.

Survivors include:

“ Wilma and Family,

A couple things. First, I will not forget and treasure the many times I came home from work after it had snowed for the day to find that I got a pass on cleaning the driveway out that night or the next morning, since Danny had already got it all taken care of for me. Also, I will greatly miss sitting on your porch and visiting with Danny and you. He was a great story teller and I loved and enjoyed every minute of it. I am not telling you anything you don't know, but he was ornery and a good good man! The perfect combination!! I have been and will continue to keep your family in my prayers. Jen Davis

“ Danny loved to sit on his front porch in the evenings and waived to the neighbors as they went by. In the winter he would bundle up good and plow everyone's driveway on the cau-de-sac, he wouldn't stop until all driveways were cleaned and would never take an money for doing so. Danny , my sons and I will never forget you. R.I.P my friend and neighbor.
