“ We will miss him so much, I worked with David at the hospital for 18 yrs, if he didn't like like what he was told to do he wouldn't do it. But he was a lot smarter than our bosses were. He trained me on doing the floor a few time,we became very good friends. We all loved him very much. Wilma if you ever need to talk or need anything I am free to be there for you. It will be very hard on you so I am here for you. I love you.

David was a man of a few words. When I would leave after visiting with Wilma, I would always say to David, "Glad you got to see me to get a response from him. He always gave me a grunt in acknowledgement.

“ David was the love of your life and you to him. This will not be easy Wilma, but by the Grace of God and the loving and comforting arms of your family and many friends, you will never be alone. Wish I could be there with you but you are in good hands. Again, I love you.

“ When I would come home to Indiana to visit, I would always stop by to see Wilma, and David of course. Now he would always act like gruff towards me like I was being a big pain in his rear-end for coming, so I would give him a hard time back. I would tease him about being his favorite niece and how I knew he really did like me. He would say "hmm" or " yeah right." Sometimes I could get a faint grin, other times he would turn around and walk out of the room. Wilma and I would laugh at him. This past October when I was home, he let me hug him and tell him that God had his hands on him. Sorry that I can't be there Wilma, but you are always in my heart and prayers. I love you
