“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I will always remember the warm family gatherings at my parents' home, as well as the trips down to Roanoke, Virginia. One memory that stands out is the night we visited the Roanoke Star. I'll never forget riding in the backseat of Uncle Dave's car with my cousins—he and my dad gave us an unforgettable thrill ride down the mountain, coasting with no brakes!

And of course, how could I forget attending the Indianapolis 500 race. What a great time that was. Those moments—filled with laughter, excitement, and family—will always hold a special place in my heart.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dennis and I have not only Fond memories of Uncle Dave, but also FUN memories of him.

Camping together all of them years in Reedville with him and the family were some of the best times and will never be forgotten.

I shared Uncle Dave's Love of music, especially 50's and 60's rock n roll. Playing music trivia with him was something I always looked forward to when he came camping with us. The woods in our camp would light up at night with music, laughter and FUN, as well as ALL the Dancing. I will never forget Uncle Dave's back flip off of Eddie's deck during one of those crazy nights.

Until we meet again one day, Rest in Peace with our Lord Uncle Dave.
