

David Wilson

July 10, 1952 - March 26, 2016

Wesley David Wilson, passed away Saturday, March 26, 2016 at his home in Lebanon. He was born in Marion Indiana, on July 10, 1952, a son of the late Wesley O. Wilson and Bonnie J. (Cunningham) Wilson.

Dave was a graduate of North Central High School and Mount Vernon University in Ohio.

He was married to Diane (Craig) Wilson; she survives.

Dave had worked his entire career in the commercial glazing industry. He worked from 1967-1977 at Stewart – Carey of Indiana, then for 15 years he worked for Dial Glass in Lebanon. Dave then worked for various companies in the Indianapolis area including Arch Aluminum Glass Company, Circle City Glass and Service Glass.

He was a devoted husband, father, and great friend to many. He loved spending time with his family. Dave is in his heavenly home. The things that are important we often take for granted, like being able to enjoy family, and having the freedom to do the things we love. Everyday above ground is a good day, some are just better than others.

“ Spent quite a bit of quality time with Dave. Will miss him greatly. Amazing, didn't know we graduated from the same school, two years apart!

Worked with Dave for the past 8 years and will miss his always upbeat personality and of course the Wednesday doughnuts he always brought in that I shouldn't have been eating but could never resist. Kim Shores
