

Debra Harrier

July 19, 1955 - October 10, 2020

Debra Harrier, age 65, died on Saturday, October 10, 2020 at Ascension St. Vincent Hospital in Carmel, Indiana with her loving daughter by her side.

Debra was a very social person and dedicated her livelihood to building relationships. Over the years she held positions at Jocko's (formerly Pizza Inn) in Danville, Illinois, PNC Bank, and the Daily Sun. She retired from RCI in Carmel, Indiana in 2018.

Debra Ann Harrier was born to James and Norma (Hildebaugh) Baker on July 19, 1955. The third of five siblings, she was born in Joliet and raised in Manhattan, Illinois.

Debra had eclectic taste. She loved painting and creating and enjoyed sharing her creations as gifts to others. Her favorite team was the Indianapolis Colts, and she could often be found cheering them on from the sofa and the stands. She also enjoyed travel and would make her way to the peace of the ocean as often as possible. Her faithful companion of 15 years, Coby the shih tzu, is sure to meet her at the rainbow bridge.

Debra is survived by her children, Ashley (Mia) Harrier of Danville, Illinois, and Kara Ridner of Zionsville, Indiana; 5 grandchildren, Killian, Rune, and Azalea Harrier, and Jade and Nolan Ridner; mother, Norma Baker; siblings, Kenneth (Robin) Baker, James III (Mary) Baker, Nancy (John) Long, and Karen Baker; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her father, James Baker, Jr.

Debra will be remembered for the quietly selfless way that she lived her life, and for the unconditional love that she bestowed upon her family and friends.

“ *Debra was a blessing in my life that I always wondered how and why I deserved such goodness. Debra being Debra, just loved me anyway...warts and all. As her obituary said, she loved unconditionally. I cherish my memories of times with her, and her gentle smile. She was a treasure, and my life was richer for her friendship. “ What I will remember most is her beautiful smile & her love life. She adored her kids & grandchildren. We have been friends since Jr High, she was a country girl coming to town (little Peotone) to go to middle school. We were fast friends right from the start. Activities in & out of school. Debbie was a bridesmaid at my wedding almost 47 years ago. My love & prayers go out to her family. Debbie will be missed by the many people that loved her. God bless, Kate Morrison Lindemann

I worked with Debbie at RCI. She was always kind to everyone. It was ironic that we met in Carmel, Indiana and we both had lived in Danville, Illinois back in the 80's. Rest in peace, my friend. Anita Perry.

Debbie had a gentle, kind, and loving spirit. She was a beautiful lady and a talented artist. She has left this world too soon for my liking but is in a better place now. May God Bless her.
