“ Doris was a delightful lady, always happy and smiling. She loved to crochet and draw and she did beautiful work, along with beautiful oil paintings and colored pencil drawings. At Crawford Manor where we live, she played dice, cards, yahtzee, and dominos, and she enjoyed getting together with other residents. We also loved to go to MCL restaurant, where she would enjoy the food and dessert, such as cherry cheesecake. We had a lot of good times and we will miss her smiling face a lot. Nanci Stevens

Gramma Doris was a special person to my special needs son and myself she also loved to hold my big huge black kitty and he loved every minute of her love. We will miss her very much and she will always be remembered by Kevin as his "gramma Doris. She's at home now in heaven and know she's happy up there 🕊️🙏❤️

I grew up across the street from Doris and she was such a fun loving, creative and beautiful person, who had the most delightful laugh. In the summer we could hear her laughing across the street. Later I bought my childhood home and Doris was, of course, my favorite neighbor. Unfortunately lost touch with her after I moved. A lot of great memories.
