My thoughts go out to you and your family, Kyle. Cling close to each other and take it one second, minute, hour at a time.

I chose a green candle because it reminds me that life continues even when we know that death is a part of that life. May all of the memories that you made together as family and friends continue to grow within your hearts and pass them down to new generations.

“ Ed always had a smile and a tad bit of orneriness that I think he passed on to Steve and Kyle. He loved his family fiercely and would do anything for them. I will always think of him when we see pumpkins, as I remember getting pumpkins off of them for a few years, and also they decorated with some at Kyle and Haley's reception too. He and Susan made a great team. I believe Heaven is a bit livened up with Ed being his old self there. My thoughts and prayers to your family. I am so sorry we can't be at the service as we are leaving for vacation this Saturday for a week. We are thinking of you all! 🙏❤️🙏
