*Sorry to hear the passing of Edith I am Martha Huffman Hensel. I was married to Ralph who passed away in 1963. He as well as I thought a lot of Edith Our daughter was named after her. I will be 98 this month and regret I wont be able to come and show my respect but you are all in my thoughts and prayers, I have fond memories of spending time with Myron and Ruth enjoying time with Edith , I lost track of everyone when we moved to NY. If you have a pictures of her please send me one Hi to John and Paul . I remember when Myron took John out to the shed to yell at him and I remember Paul said go ahead and kill him that's what you want to do love to all
