

Elnora R. Alma

November 27, 1925 - October 25, 2020

Mrs. Elnora Ruth Alma, 94, passed away at the Waters of Lebanon on Sunday, October 25, 2020. She was born in Boone County, Indiana on November 27, 1925; a daughter of the late Melvin Cleo and Merlia L. (Jackson) Baumgardner.

During her childhood years, she lived near Zionsville and was a graduate of Carmel High School.

Elnora was married a short time to Richard Kinkead, they divorced, and he preceded her in death. On August 29, 1957 she married Roy E. Alma; they shared 32 loving years together before his passing on September 16, 1989.

Elnora and Roy lived and farmed near Waynetown, Indiana before moving back to Lebanon in 1990. She worked for J & L Steel (bucket factory) for ten years and also worked a few years at the Lebanon Kroger, retiring in 1993.

She was a member of the Bible Baptist Church in Lebanon. She enjoyed working on the family farm and word search puzzles, but nothing was more important to her than family.

“ *Aunt nunu you will be missed
I've have known this beautiful souls literally my entire life, it's crazy to see she loved so long and she loves her best life! She was an inspiration to so many people, I mean she was elderly and blind and still lived alone! My heart is heavy as this woman leaves earth to go to a beautiful and peaceful place! I love you aunt nunu I will see you again someday until I love you and will miss you in this crazy thing called life!*
