

Florence Heath

February 16, 1936 - December 1, 2024

Mrs. Florence Heath, 88, of Lebanon, Indiana, passed away Sunday, December 1, 2024, at Bridgewater Healthcare in Carmel.

Florence was born February 16, 1936, in Columbus, Indiana. On May 1, 1954, she was united in marriage to Charles Richard Heath in Milledgeville. They had shared 39 loving years together before he passed away on March 9, 1994.

She was a graduate of Pinnell High School. A dedicated homemaker through the years, she was devoted to raising her family and taking care of their home. While her daughter participated in girl scouts, Florence volunteered as a leader and enjoyed helping at Camp Delwood and Camp Gallahue, both in Indiana.

Having loved the Lord, Florence had tremendous faith. She served her community at The Caring Center in Lebanon for several years. She enjoyed traveling with her sister, Maxine, to Hawaii and throughout Europe, including the entire country of Ireland which was her family's homeland.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Marcia and Michael Hoover; three grandchildren; four great granddaughters and three great grandsons.

In addition to her parents and husband, Florence was preceded in death by her sons, Gerald Heath and Jeff Heath; three sisters and two brothers, one of which was her twin; and Mildred Edlin who was like a second mother to Florence.

The family would like to express their gratitude to the staff of Ascension St. Vincent Heart Center in Indianapolis for their thoughtfulness and care of Florence.

Funeral Services are planned for 1:00 p.m. on Friday, December 6, 2024, at Myers Mortuary, 1502 North Lebanon Street, Lebanon, Indiana. Visitation will be held from 12:00 noon until the time of the service. Interment will follow services at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lebanon.

Memorials may be directed in her memory to The Caring Center, 1230 Ransdell Court, Lebanon, Indiana 46052.

“ Mrs. Heath was one of my Girl Scout troop leaders back in the Sixties. She often would open up her home for our weekly meetings. My condolences to Marcia and her family during this difficult time.

“ Marcia, I am so sorry for your loss. I am Marilene Frederick's daughter. I spent much of my childhood at your mom's house, playing at the foot of the table while my mom and your mom played cards, dominos, and triominos. Florence was the sweetest woman, and one of my mom's dearest friends. I have no doubt they are sitting at a dominoes table right now together (perhaps while Charlie watches TV in another room...lol). I have so many great memories of your mom. One of my favorites was when I took her, my mom, and Mildred all to see "Black Patent Leather Shoes Don't Reflect up" at Beef and Boards. The story is about a bunch of teenagers coming to age in a catholic school. I never heard your mom laugh so hard in my life! I heard some great stories of her own catholic school experiences on the drive home that day, that's for sure! :). Florence will be truly missed. Here is the last photo I took of the two of them just a few weeks before my mom passed. Again, my condolences.

One correction, it was Maxine, not Mildred that went with us (though I spent time with both). Maxine was a hoot! :)

Marcia, we are saddened by your loss and remember the good times you mom had with my mom just playing cards, on trips or getting stuck in the tub and couldn't get out. Hugs to the family and remember the fun and laughter these girls brought to the world.
