“ papaw, I remember when I was about 6 years old, you and I were playing soccer and I accidentally kicked it too hard and you fell and I cried and cried and cried because I thought I hurt you but you just laughed it off and you always teased me and never let me forget that day with you. I also remember the tshirt you made me with a picture of my mom and I. I still have that shirt. I'm blessed you are not suffering anymore but I still will miss you. Christmas will be hard this year and I'm sorry you weren't apart of my 18th birthday. May you Rest In Peace and I love you.

“ When there are no words to soften the pain, may your spirit be touched by the love he gave and his kind and gentle heart, that we all remember and Love.
May the Lord be the source of comfort to you in your loss.
My sympathy is with you,
Valerie
