“ To the entire Stephens and Hickson's extended family, Tim and I are so sorry for your loss. We didn't really know Cindy's father personally but he was always so nice and friendly to both of us. Fred's smile could light up the world!

“ This makes me sad. I graduated in the Class of 1951 with him. I have many fond memories of Fred, his parents, and his sisters Marjorie and Virginia. I remember him mostly in high school. He was a curly headed handsome teenager and as pleasant as he was good looking. My memories of him include him being on our class trip to Washington D.C. and New York City in May 1951. My sympathy to you, Cindy, and to you, Marjorie, and to all of those who loved him and will miss him..
