He was a member of the River Runners kayaking and camping club in South Carolina and participated in a hot air balloon team in Lititz, Pennsylvania for several years. In retirement, he volunteered at the Lebanon food bank and at the Greek Orthodox church bookstore in Carmel. He also baked pies for new church members in Zionsville.

“ I took care of Glenn until he was 75, for a couple years. Just before Gretchen came home to take care of him. He loved homemade fruit pies for breakfast. My favorite memory of him is the story about why we put angels on Christmas trees. He was an amazing man, and I cared a lot about his well being.

“ Glenn was an older Brother. He cared for me when our Parents were at work. We shared many things over the years. In 2018, Glenn came for a visit via a bus. He missed the bus and called me while I was enroute to pick him up in Chattanooga. Plans changed quickly to pick him up in Manchester. We laughed and laughed about this. We visited many places from our childhood and "not" from our childhood. We discovered many things we had forgotten. We visited the Church we attended in the mid 50s and met so many from that era at that Sunday. We did many stops in Georgia, Tennessee, and Kentucky we had previously not had the opportunity to do. Later when talking, Glenn and I relived that one week many times.. It is / was so memorable to us. I would not trade anything for that week with Glenn. I LOVE You, Glenn.

Glenn was my Brother-in-law and I loved him very much. He visited us in 2018 for 3+weeks. We had our pedicures and laughed about it. We went to the gym together for walks. Our family and his family went on camping trips and he taught me how to cook outdoors. He was amazing and will be missed. Thank you for all the memories. Love you, Sue W Turner.
