“ Heidi was a "Gentle Force." She was kind and loved much. I still hear her laughing and love that laugh of hers. Prayers for her family as they walk this journey without her. May we all remember to celebrate life everyday we are given. May we remember to love like you did and enjoy each day given to us with friends and family.
Love, Connie

“ I am so sad and shocked to hear that Heidi has passed away. I met her at the Survival Skills For Women class that she attended many years ago. She was a lovely, caring woman. That is why I remember her. She was warm, friendly and a positive role model. My deepest sympathies to her family. It is a great loss.

“ Heids!!!??? This is so NOT cool of you!! You were not suppose to leave so soon!:(

I have soooo many memories of you. As kids playing in my dads "BLUE ROOM" getting scared of all the ghost stories being told to us. Playing Light as A Feather, etc. Spending the night with you and staying up late eating crackers w/butter & sugar on them.....YUCK! (now)

Which tasted pretty good to us back then. LOL

Riding the bus in the mornings with you to school when I did spend the night, boys on the bus giving you the nickname "Hildagar" which has always stuck with me, therefore, me always calling you that and u hating it LOL (not really, I think u actually loved it)

I love you so much and already missing you. Just got together 2 weeks ago, and had plans to get together every month or 2 with our friends..... 😞

“ One very happy memory of mine is from a visit to Heidi's house when we were kids...she and I sang every single verse of 99 Bottles of Beer on the Wall over several hours, driving her family nuts I'm sure. But they didn't complain (at least not to us!) and always made me feel welcome, much like Heidi herself whom I remember as very accepting, easygoing, and joyful. Years later, Heidi provided a friendly and familiar face to my parents when my father was in the hospital. Heidi was someone who radiated Jesus to others and I have no doubt that she is in heaven now...maybe when I see her next we can sing One Million Bottles of Beer on the Wall together!

“ Love my sister so much . It's very said she left this early in life. When my brother Ron Frederick was lying in his bed ready to take his last breath Heidi, her husband Brian and I were there. As I ask the nurse if the oxygen was keeping him alive . She said yes. Without even thinking. I said shut it off. Within 7 minute he struggled and took his last breath. After that I was guilt that I took my brother's life away. Heidi already morning my brother talk to me and of course saying I didn't. It had to be done. To this day I still think I did take his life. But then I remember and always will remember her words, her smile, and the way she hugged me when she sees me. If an angel ever deserved her wing my sister deserved the biggest ones they have. RIP my sweet sister. love you and miss you.
