“Irish Jean served as First Baptist Church secretary for a number of years while I was pastor. An early memory was she and I taking a computer class at Webo; she wanted to learn how to use a mouse more effectively. She was never afraid to try something new. She loved her extended family, as well as her First Baptist family, so very much. She truly had a servant's heart, living out her faith in so many ways. My wife Anne and I send our condolences to her family and friends. It was truly a blessing to have known her and ministered with her.

Thankful to have this sweet lady as my neighbor growing up in Ulen . She had the best smile and always baking good things. We played kick ball and lots of other fun games at Richie's house or ours. I know I will see her in heaven someday . God bless you Richie and Sandy. We just live in Brownsburg IN so maybe we can reconnect. In His unfailing ❤️ love, Nancy Sue Lenox Brannon(again) Bill sends his love and prayers too. God bless all. Proverbs 3:5-6 💜🕊️✝️

“ Iris Jean was a very special lady. When she still lived at home, I visited with her often and loved hearing her stories of her “growing up” years, early years of her marriage, the Hicks body company and building their home in Ulen. When I walk on Saturday mornings, I’d always see her sitting in her window and would stop and wave! Her smiles and beautiful blue eyes could light up a room! So thankful God brought you home to heaven, Iris Jean, where I’m sure you’re teaching dance classes once again!❤️

“ Iris Jean was so special to the kids and I when we first started coming to Lebanon First Baptist. Her kindness and quick wit and welcoming manor was one of the huge reasons why I have stayed a member for 30 plus years. She was always so supportive of the kids and I over the years. She was spirited and so fun, I remember singing hymns caroling style when she first moved from Lebanon and it was so sad to see her go, but so happy she could enjoy family more often too. She was truly a shining light to so many people with her strong faith, and I loved her input in women's bible study as well. Her years of experience in trusting in him was beyond awesome. A beautiful person inside and out who will be missed and I will forever be blessed to have known her and loved her.
