“ I have known Iris for many years and my husband Bob was in her class at Thorntown. She was always a sweet and friendly face whenever we ran into her. Please know that we are praying for you all to have peace and comfort. Keep your memories close and God will get you through this. She was too young to leave this earth, but God had other plans for her. Hugs for you all.

“ Lisa and family,

My thoughts and prayers to you on your family on your loss. It is never easy to lose anyone, but there is something different when it is your Mom. Cling tight to your fun memories with her to carry you through and let Jesus do the same for you.

*Thinking of you all,
Tami Richardson*
