

Jackie Smith

November 23, 2013

Kathryn Jacqueline “Jackie” Smith, 89, died on Friday, November 22, 2013, at Tidewell Hospice in Port Charlotte, Florida. She was born on May 14, 1924, in Indiana, to the late Ora O. and Lilly Maude (Turner) Baber. Raised in Boone County, Jackie attended schools in Whitestown and graduated from Lebanon High School. On June 21, 1941, she was married to Lloyd George Smith. Mr. Smith passed away on October 27, 2009. As a teenager and young adult, Jackie worked at the soda fountain for Chuck Hines Pharmacy in Whitestown. Following her marriage to Lloyd, she raised her children and took care of the family home. For the past 30 years, Jackie lived in Florida where she was extremely active in her church, New Day Christian, serving in various capacities from director of children’s church to volunteer custodian. Jackie also served as a volunteer at Charlotte Regional Medical Center in Punta Gorda for 33 years, as well as serving as a volunteer in Dr. Steve Moenning’s office. Mrs. Smith was a devoted wife, mother, and proud grandmother. She enjoyed spending time with her family and attending their various activities. She also enjoyed hosting her grandchildren and their friends in her home over many school breaks. Known to break into a spontaneous dance move or two on many occasions, Jackie also had an infectious smile and laugh that she readily shared with those around her, making everyone feel like a long time friend. She was a woman of strong Christian faith. Jackie exemplified this love every day through her enthusiastic zest for life and her joy in helping others and being there for them. Funeral Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 5, 2013, at Myers Chapel of Memories, 1502 North Lebanon Street, in Lebanon, Indiana, with Pastor Rusty Russell of New Day Christian Church in Port Charlotte, Florida and Rev.
