“ Jim will be missed by Mea. He was a good grandpa to her. We are so grateful that he was a part of her life. He was always so kind and giving to folks around him. Always ready to lend a helping hand. Mea's heart aches and so do ours. I pray that God comforts your hurts and fills you with hope.

“ *Tammy,
We think Jimmy was very lucky man to have a wife like you. A wife that was vigilant about his treatment and medications. A wife that was devoted, compassionate, and patient. A wife that spend countless hours , days and months at his bedside, always a prayer for his recovery even to the last day. A wife that honored her vows in good times and bad. A wife that loved her husband so much her heart is broken with his passing. And many times you would say "He would do the same for me" and we knew that he would have. You did everything in your power to assure his treatment, please take comfort in knowing he will have no more pain, tests or trials.*

*Love and Prayers

Thank you guys. I am just so lost and my heart is broken. I was his girl and he was my baby. I took the same vows as he did and just cause he got sick I wasn't nor would I EVER walk away. We were soul mates. In sickness or health I was there to take care of my baby.
