“ I am so sorry to learn of Jamie's passing. I knew her when she was married to my cousin, Mark Wood. She was always so kind and caring. I know that her daughter, Rorie, was such a big help when her grandmother, Ann Wood, needed extra hands and feet. It's too bad she had to go at a young age...I know she touched many lives with her swimming lessons and other things. My sincere condolence to her family. Julie Lenox Haines

“ As a lifeguard at the Lebanon YMCA I watched over Jamie's classes three time a week. Jamie was a sensitive, caring person who always had a kind word for everyone. I always enjoyed watching over her classes. Everyone always had a good time. My condolences to her family. She was an exceptional person!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met Jamie while working at the Witham YMCA, guarding her classes. We really connected once we realized she used to work for my mom, years ago, thankfully she really liked my mom 😊 I so enjoyed joking around with Jamie, she truly will missed by all her YMCA family.💖
