

Jana D. Darrough

November 19, 1952 - November 2, 2016

Ms. Jana D. Darrough, 63, of Lebanon, Indiana, passed away on Wednesday, November 2, 2016 at Danville Regional Rehabilitation in Danville, Indiana. She was born in Beech Grove, Indiana, on November 19, 1952, the daughter of the late Erwin Wayne and Miriam Fay (Brame) Darrough.

A longtime resident of Lebanon, Jana was a 1970 graduate of Lebanon High School. She received a Bachelor's Degree from IUPUI and a Master's Degree from Phoenix University. She spent twelve years as a clerk in the office at Conrail Railroad in Avon, Indiana.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother and friend. She enjoyed a variety of activities but nothing more than her family and friends. She enjoyed flower and vegetable gardening, frequenting garage sales, and talking on the telephone for hours.

The family will hold a private memorial service at a later date.

Myers Mortuary and Boone County Crematory have been entrusted with her cremation.

“ Sorry for your loss Eric and Mark. I am sorry we didn't stay in contact with all of you. I lost my husband Bill in August this year and my basset hound vicky in Sept and then my daughter Bessie Jane in October. It is very difficult when you loose your loved ones. My prayers are with all of you. Cris and I and Nick and Ryan will pray for all of you.
