“ I did not know that Janet had died until yesterday. I'm sorry about that. Janet and I literally grew up together being close in age. Her family would come to Grandma's on Sundays and we would play in the creek after being told not to get wet. We always said "we didn't" as we were dripping. My serious health problems has prevented me from visiting. Linda Asbury-Thomas

“ I always enjoyed talking to Jan and loved her laugh. She was always kind and had good things to say. One of my favorite memories was her inviting Angel to come see the rabbits and how much Angel enjoyed that.

Eber II and I are keeping your family in our prayers.
