“ Janice was such a sweet and kind person... And truly a blessing to everybody who is lucky enough to have her step into their lives. Back in the day we had so many long lovely chats... And I will never forget the wisdom, kindness, and honesty that always came out of her I am so sorry for your loss... But I hope it gives everyone comfort to know that she is not gone... She has just gone home.

“ My deepest sympathies to you and your family Jack. I know you are going to miss her so. I always enjoyed the many conversations we have had over the years. Janice was a very sweet caring person who cared deeply for others. She made me laugh so many times. I will miss those times. Praying for you and your family.
